- we need it to perform an official task in the public interest (Article 6, 1e GDPR 2018)

Less commonly, we may also process pupils' personal data in situations where:

- we have obtained consent to use it in a certain way (Article 6, 1a GDPR 2018, Article 9 2a GDPR 2018)
- we need to protect the individual's vital interests (or someone else's interests) (Article 6, 1d GDPR 2018, Article 9, 2c GDPR 2018)
- we need it for reasons of substantial public interest, on the basis on Union or Member State law (Article 9, 2g, GDPR 2018 (2)(g))

Where we have obtained consent to use pupils' personal data, this consent can be withdrawn at any time. We will make this clear when we ask for consent, and explain how consent can be withdrawn.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using pupils' personal data overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify our use of this data.

How we collect pupil information

We collect pupil information via registration forms at the start of the school year or secure file transfer from previous schools.

Pupil data is essential for the school's operational use. Whilst the majority of pupil information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is requested on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the data protection legislation, we will inform you at the point of collection, whether you are required to provide certain pupil information to us or if you have a choice in this.

How we store this data

We keep personal information about pupils while they are attending our school. We may also keep it beyond their attendance at our school if this is necessary in order to comply with our legal obligations.
